

BIGARD MEMORIAL SEMINARY ENUGU
PHILOSOPHICAL ANTHROPOLOGY (ORAL)
PHILOSOPHY IV

1. What is the philosophical implication of Buber's dialogical concept of the Human Person?
2. Explain Heraclitus' notion of personhood
3. Would a person still be considered human if they lived alone?
4. As an African, do you resonate with the views of the Luba or Baluba tribes regarding human destiny and immortality? If yes, why or why not?
5. What is the significance of Godfrey Onah's review of Pannenberg's stance on self-transcendence?
6. Discuss the implications of Protagoras' view on personhood.
7. What is the significance of historicity in philosophical anthropology? Does time change an individual?
8. Why is the African perspective of the human person ontological and normative?
9. Who presented a unified and dualistic Akan concept of personhood and why?
10. "The idea of death without a belief in the afterlife undermines the doctrine of the soul's destiny." Do you agree with this assertion?
11. Mention and explain briefly the five features of death.
12. Explain the competing constructs in the discourse on personhood.
13. Explain how a living body opens up in an experience as an object and a subject.
14. Why is the Buddhists' notion of self-transcendence spatio-temporal?
15. State and explain the unique roles of the human body.
16. Identify the essential tools of knowledge.
17. The implication of Battista Mondin's stance on personhood.
18. Do you think that the study of the human person is justifiable?
19. The matter is an exterior manifestation of being human. It constitutes a distinctive trait of a person and the first trait. Discuss
20. Why are the elements of human complexity irreducible to one another?
21. Mention and explain the dimensions of human self-transcendence.
22. Why is it impossible for a body to exist independently from the soul?
23. Explain, with examples, the material, formal, efficient, and final causes of human existence.
24. Distinguish between vegetative, sentient and rational souls.
25. What ethical issues emerge from the viewpoints of René Descartes and Kwasi Wiredu regarding "personhood"?
26. What is Anaximander's Cosmocentric perspective on personhood?
27. Mention the practical functions that the intellectual faculty of a rational soul performs.
28. Outline Ernst Bloch's role in the discourse on self-transcendence.
29. What is it about the scientific stance on "the death of death"?
30. How are self-actualisation and self-transcendence connected?